Mennonite Church USA

About our speaker.....

Glen Guyton, Executive Director of Mennonite Church USA, joined the Mennonite denomination in 1993 at Calvary Community Church (C3) in Hampton, Virginia and worked there as a youth pastor until 2009. At the time of joining the church, he was stationed at Langley Air Force Base serving in the military. He credits several Mennonite leaders for teaching him what it means to be an Anabaptist Christian, especially Bishop L.W. Francisco III, pastor at C3 Hampton, and Titus Peachy, formerly of Mennonite Central Committee. This led him to leave the military and commit to nonviolence. Guyton was rebaptized at C3 and began serving on Virginia Mennonite Conference's Alternatives to Military Service Committee and the VMC anti-racism team.

"I feel called to serve MC USA. I owe it to my children and younger generations to continue on this journey. This role is not about me, but the wonderful people that make us MC USA. I look forward to working with our conferences and congregations to help them live out their witness in their context in new and creative ways." said Guyton. "At heart, my work is equipping the next generation to understand and live out their call."

During Peace Camp, young adults will explore the theme of "Responding to Violence" through hands-on learning. The week includes a trip to Chicago with MCC partners working with gun violence prevention. Other focus topics include conflict transformation, anti-racism, bystander training and restorative justice. The base participant fee is $300, and scholarships are available on a case-by-case basis.
